COUNTY-WIDE PLANNING COMMISSION MEETING

February 29, 2012

3:00 – 4:00 PM

Terrace Plaza Building – 7th Floor
316 Morris Avenue (downtown Muskegon)

Program Topic: Road/Stream Crossings: Coordinating Transportation and Environmental Projects

The topic of the upcoming County-wide Planning Commission Meeting will be a discussion on coordinating transportation and environmental projects at road/stream crossings in Muskegon County. The presentation will be lead by Paul Bouman, Muskegon County Road Commission and Kathy Evans, WMSRDC. It will focus on the location of road/stream crossings, as well as their current infrastructure functionality and needs. The purpose of the County-wide Planning Commission meetings is to share information and encourage communication between the planning commissions within Muskegon County. All Planning Commission members are welcome to attend. County-wide Planning Commission meetings will be held each year during the months that have a fifth Wednesday. The MAP Land Use & Growth Committee and the WMSRDC will be the hosts.
